Fire Insurance in Charleston.

The Charleston Mercury says: Before the war say in 1860, the amount of property insured in Charleston, real of property insured in Charleston, real estate, stocks, cotton in transit, etc., was about $40,000,000. The amount of premium paid during that year was about $400,000. The insurance was then effected almost entirely in home companies, but from the absence of capital in our midst since the war, this business is now almost exclusively done by Northern and foreign companies. The amount ernand foreign companies. The amount of premiums received in 1800 and 1867 was about $255,000 each year, and the properly insured about $20,500,000. The property insured anome $25,000,000. The real estate of the city is at present as-sessed at 21,000,000. This, however, covers tots as wall as buildings, and a great deal of it is not insured.

The losses by fire since the termination of the war to date are about $600,000. The amount paid by insurance companies for losses during that period is $450,000, amount of premiums paid for same time nearly $800,000. Thus, notwithstanding the frequent beavy fires we have had in the last three years, the premiums show a surplus of about $350,000 over and above the losses paid by the insurance companies. This by the insurance companies. This money has nearly all gone to the North and to Europe.

LETTER OF CHIEF-JUSTICE CHASE,-The Chief-Justice, having received a letter from New York, inquiring his opinion upon political matters, sent the To be found in Northern Vernont. Hyon don't following reply:

JULY 1st, 1868. Please say to your friend that he is entirely right as to my views of suffrage spring and State rights.

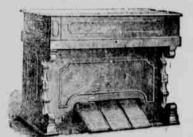

What I desire for the Southern States is peace and prosperity, with all dis-franchisements and disabilities removed, and all rights restored to all citizens: and it is my opinion that the States will be best served by according suffrage to all citizens.

But the practical disposition of the question of suffrage, as well as all other domestic questions, is for the people of States themselves to decide, not for out-siders. On this question I adhere to my old States right doctrines. In the event of a nomination and suc-eess, I trust I should so act that neither the great party which makes the nomination, nor the great body of patriotic citizens whose cooperation would insure success, would have any cause to regret their action. It is an intense desire with me to see the Democratic party meeting the questions of the day in the spirit of the day, and assuring to itself a long duration of ascendancy. It can do so if it will.
